Photosynthesis

Green plants make sugar from light, water and carbon dioxide.

Where it happens

Chloroplasts in leaf cells hold the green pigment chlorophyll.

What comes out

Plants release oxygen into the air as a by-product.